SUPERIOR JUDGE WASTE FALLS IN FAINT

There is nothing more important to the interests of Oakland and neighboring cities than the carrying out of this enterprise. It will divert the flow of the richest section of Contra Costa county to this city. It has for a long season been heartily endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce and the Chamber of Exchange, and there is a constant demand in Contra Costa county as well as in Alameda county for early construction.

It is otherwise to begin the railway's construction as soon as it secures the franchise and right of way through the tunnel to Alameda county's share of it. The proposition is now squarely up to the Supervisors.

WEATHER REPORT
 Oakland and vicinity: Fair tonight and Friday, light north wind.
 Santa Clara, Sacramento and San Joaquin: Clear, warmer to night, and fair Friday, light north wind.
 Southern California: Fair tonight and Friday, light north winds.

Arrangements have been made by the promoters of the Oakland and Antioch electric railway to finance its bonds. The gentlemen promoting the enterprise are J. Naphtaly, A. W. Maltby, W. Arnstein, Allan Pollok, S. L. Naphtaly and others; well known citizens of substantial means.

The route surveyed for the new electric railroad runs across Contra Costa county, draining the rich territory in the neighborhood of Antioch and the fertile Walnut Creek and San Ramon valleys, and will cross the city along the Contra Costa and Alameda county road commonly known as the Tunnel road.

There is nothing more important to the interests of Oakland and neighborhoods than the carrying out of this enterprise. It will divert the flow of the richest section of Contra Costa county to this city. It has for a long season been heartily endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Exchange, and there is a strong demand in Contra Costa county as well as in Alameda county for early construction.

The only thing which has prevented the beginning of actual work on the new railway is the granting of a franchise by the Board of Supervisors of this county which shall include the right to the use of the tunnel plotting the summit of the line. The Contra Costa county Supervisors have granted the franchise for the use of the northern end of the tunnel.

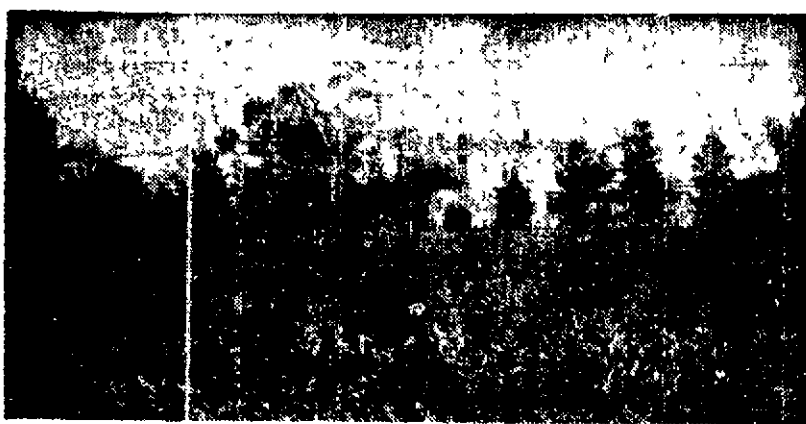

The project is one which promises to produce results of such great value to Alameda county that there should not be any hesitation on the part of the Supervisors to grant the franchise without further delay. The corporation is now in shape financially and otherwise to begin the railway's construction as soon as it secures the franchise and right of way through the tunnel to Alameda county's share of it. The proposition is now squarely up to the Supervisors.

NEW CIVIC ADMINISTRATION TAKES UP REINS OF OFFICE

The new municipal administration headed by Mayor Mott City Attorney Esterson, and City Engineer Turner, assumed office for the ensuing two years this morning. Esterson appointed as assistant city attorney, Colonel William H. O'Brien, who has efficiently served in that capacity since the late John M. McElroy began his term. It was understood that the colonel would have been retained had Mr. O'Brien lived to enter his fourth term as city attorney.

This evening the Board of Education will be organized by the election of A. L. Hama as president. F. W. McDonalds, incumbent, will be re-elected superintendent of schools. Monday night the organization of the new City Council will take place. Mayor Mott will then send in his message outlining the policies that the incoming administration will pursue. As told exclusively to the TRIBUNE, some days ago B. T. Pendleton will succeed Oliver Ellsworth as the presiding officer of that body.

No change in the other departments will be made. City Auditor and Assessor George Crocker will retain his present staff of clerks, and the deputy treasurers will be named by City Treasurer Moore, while City Engineer Turner does not intend making any changes in his department. The Board of Health will remain about the same as present. Mayor Mott said this morning that no appointments to that body would come before him at present.

The Board of Public Works will have the same men as the filing list with Walter B. Thwaitt again holding down the secretary's chair.

"On November 1st, having suffered some weeks with a very annoying cough, I procured a six bottle of your Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. After a few doses, I was much relieved, and my cough in 3 days discontinued. I have used only the six bottles, and feel the same as before."

Yours truly,

Join the Chamber of Commerce.

Not only should every man having property and business interests in Oakland join the Chamber of Commerce, but after joining the organization the members should actively participate in the work of the chamber. Financial support is, of course, essential, but vigorous and united effort intelligently directed is the vital thing in a movement such as the Chamber of Commerce has inaugurated. Let us not only hurrah and pray for the town, but let us work for it. Oakland's matchless advantages as a mercantile and manufacturing center and her superb attractions as a place of residence should be more widely advertised, and the civic development now in progress should enlist the attention and active support of every patriotic citizen.

The Chamber of Commerce is now organizing the business community into a compact aggressive force for progress. Every citizen with a spark of public spirit in him should enlist in the movement and become an active part in it—be a builder as well as a booster. Help and encouragement should be extended to an effort of so much material and moral consequence to the city. Organization, enthusiasm and collective energy, the cohesion of a common interest and the impulse of united effort, are what we need. Also a more militant brand of civic pride, a more optimistic faith in our municipal destiny.

This is what the Chamber of Commerce is striving to give us. It is striving to get Oaklanders together to stand up and work for Oakland, to love Oakland and talk Oakland no matter where they are or in what company they may be cast. While it is making the advantages and beauties of the city known abroad, it is laboring to arouse and mobilize dormant patriotism at home; it is trying to change indifference into enthusiasm, inertia into energy, barnacles into boomers. It is inspiring the community with hope, push, snap and go, stimulating the factors which make for progress and the bustle of real business.

Every body should get in and help. Lend a hand—both hands, if necessary—to the Chamber of Commerce's movement. It is for the good of everybody. It means work for the idle, interest for the indolent and business for those who deserve it. It means a bigger, better, cleaner, handsomer city, and a higher quality of citizenship. Fall in line and do your part. Don't be a clam, a mossback, a barnacle or a kicker. Boost, boom and work.

New Street Repairing Policy.

The crusade for good street pavements has not opened too soon. It will probably succeed. It certainly should. No city needs good pavements more than Oakland at the present time. The city has a progressive government. Every branch of it promises to work in harmony. The community at large is in entire accord with the administration's policy.

Good pavements mean everything for Oakland's present good and future progress. It has passed the time when country roads meet it wants. Its streets are carrying a metropolitan traffic. These pavements must be put in a condition whereby this traffic can be handled with comfort and economy. Makeshift pavements are no longer serviceable. Wrecked pavements are intolerable. Every interest of value to the city is handicapped by poor pavements. Whatever the cost of making good streets may be, it must be borne. The people understand the situation and are ready to carry out a plan of thorough street improvement to meet the new conditions. The old policy of making property fronting on a street bearing the burden of the heavy traffic it has been compelled to carry during the past three years must be abandoned for the more sane and equitable policy of distributing the major part of the burden on the community at large which is reaping the benefit of the city's commercial growth.

The new movement for good streets augurs well for the city's future. No time should be lost in putting it into practical effect. Good pavements speak volumes for a city's progressiveness. Poor pavements give its reputation a black eye. Good pavements are, moreover, economical. It costs less to keep a good pavement in repair than it does a poor one. But to keep the best of pavements in repair to offset the wear and tear of heavy traffic needs constant attention and the expenditure of money. But the old adage that "a stitch in time saves nine" applies to pavements as it does to clothing, and it should henceforth be the standing motto of the Street Department in the care of the city's public thoroughfares.

Diamonds in Butte County.

The Oroville Register reports that three small diamonds have been washed out of the vein of kimberlite at a depth of 180 feet from the surface on which the United States Diamond Mining Company is sinking a shaft. The mine is near Oroville. On the surface the kimberlite—the matrix in which South African diamonds are found—is hard and barren. But it was theorized that at a depth the material would soften and be found productive. At the 180-foot level, the kimberlite is said to be softening as expected, and the finding of the small diamonds in the disintegrated material encourages the hope that the theory of productivity will also prove correct.

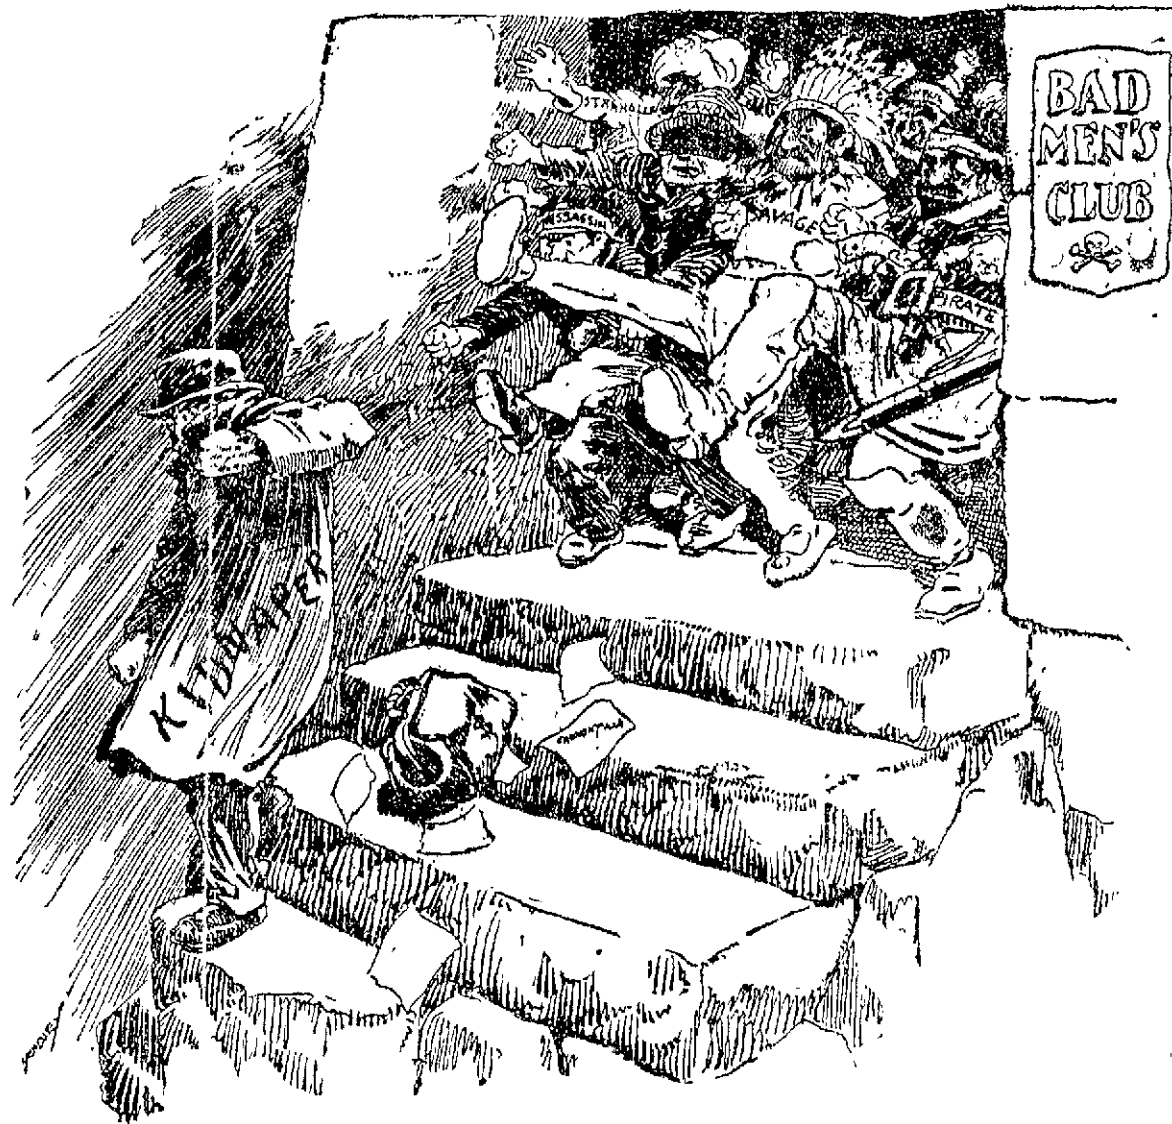

Stray diamonds have been found in several parts of the State. Invariably they have been picked out of the slices of placer mines. The Oroville Register says: "It is a matter of common knowledge that during the past fifty years a large number of diamonds have been found in this city. While this might not be conclusive evidence that the stones originated here, it is yet sufficient evidence to warrant thorough prospecting."

The discovery of a diamondiferous deposit in Butte county or any other part of the State would be heartily welcomed, if genuine. The finding of a pipe of kimberlite—a blue clay supposed to be of volcanic origin—like that in which diamonds are found in South Africa, is a favorable indication; but it is not conclusive. Kimberlite, although the matrix of diamonds, may be as barren as much quartz—the mother of gold—is of the precious metal. Californians have been wary, however, of all reports of diamond discoveries since the Arnold diamond field fake on the Nevada-California boundary line. Before Butte county works up a diamond fever, on the strength of the reported discovery in this Oroville mine, it should await further developments. If they show up a productive deposit, it will be a welcome addition to the natural resources of California, which everybody will welcome who has the welfare of the State at heart.

At the primary election recently held at San Diego there were 5827 votes cast. They were divided as follows: Forward (Rep.), 2356; Conrad (Dem.), 2265; Kirkwood (Socialist), 1206. At the election to be held on April 6 there will be only two candidates for Mayor on the ballot, namely, Forward and Conrad, and it looks as present as though the result will be determined by the Socialists, who apparently hold the balance of power.

The month of March came in like a lion and it went out yesterday as quiet and gentle as a lamb.

IF THERE IS SUCH A PLACE

CHORUS--WE MUST DRAW THE LINE SOMEWHERE!

Very Queer Official Records.

Verily the eccentricities of the organs of the Spreckels-Phelan combination resemble the changes of the kaleidoscope, and are past finding out.

During the recent campaign in this city, the Bulletin, the Phelan end of the combination, broke loose upon its humble and devoted follower, the Enquirer, and denounced it as "a thief," through all the mutations in which that term may be used.

Temporarily expelled from the luminous company of the self-righteous, the Enquirer has looked for a chance for reinstatement amongst those who wear halos and have wings to flap. This opportunity has occurred in discussing the burglary of Patrick Calhoun's offices. The Enquirer takes its cue from the Bulletin and lets its wrathful voice on all newspapers that do not endorse that violent and criminal search and seizure. Calling up from below its diaphragm much heartfelt emotion, the Enquirer denounces the "paid panders of the press" for being concerned over "the effort to locate property stolen from the court records of the city of San Francisco."

Now a "court record" is a public record, so let us look into these records a bit. To begin with, the statutes say what writings and papers may be the object of larceny. They are securities, contracts representing money value. As the "property" stolen, had no such character it could not lawfully be the object of larceny. The facts seem to be that some of the rogues in the employ of Burns undertook to make a little profit on the side by marketing copies of the reports made by his spies on the standing of prospective jurors. These rogues, applying the lessons learned in their service, were, according to the Enquirer, making traffic in "court records." If so, these "records" were in the custody and their contents within the knowledge of Judge Lawlor.

To copy a court "record," which is a public record, is no crime under any statute ever enacted. But in what position does the Enquirer put the court in regard to these "court records"?

They disclose the fact that the Assistant Prosecuting Attorney and the court, if it were a "court record," connived at the acceptance of a juror to try Patrick Calhoun, who was shown by these "records" to be violently prejudiced against Calhoun! One of the Burns men who helped ransack the offices of Calhoun, naively said of this juror, "I don't wonder the defense challenged him. He was the most violently prejudiced man I ever saw."

The Enquirer says that the evidence of this juror's "violent prejudice" against Calhoun was a "court record" at the time the prosecution and the court passed him on the jury and compelled the defense to use a peremptory challenge to get rid of him!

Now suppose the Bulletin undertook to establish in court its charge that the Enquirer is "a thief," and of course employed Mr. Burns to spy on prospective jurors in the case, and the reports of his spies were "court records" and therefore known to the judge and the prosecuting attorney, and that they combined to fill the jury box with juror "violently prejudiced" against the Enquirer, how would their organ of reform and elevated emotions like it?

In the foregoing no statement is made beyond the exact facts, to which the Enquirer's "court record" argument is applied.

While the consumers of tobacco in the United States have unconsciously continued to pay the Spanish war tax imposed upon the weed since its repeal in 1902, it is safe to say that the American Tobacco Trust (one of the Standard Oil Company's offshoots) was not afflicted with the same unconsciousness. When the tax was imposed it laid the foundation ingeniously for the diversion of this revenue into its own cashbox whenever Congress should remove the tariff by reducing the weight of packages without changing the price to accommodate the trade. When the tax was repealed the trust conveniently neglected to restore the weight of the packages which transferred the revenue to its own pocket. Representative Dawson of Iowa estimates that the Tobacco Trust has collected since 1902 through the trick nearly $45,000,000, and he has introduced a bill to put a stop to the fraud by requiring the restoration of the weights of 5c and 10c packages to what they were before the tobacco war tax was imposed.

The Call and Bulletin continue to describe copies of the reports of Burns' spies as "official records" and "public documents" belonging to the District Attorney's office, but they don't undertake to explain why Burns swore they were his private property. Does Burns own the District Attorney's office?

BROKE ALL RECORDS FOR TUNNEL BORING IN U. S.

LOS ANGELES, April 1.—The American record for tunnel boring was broken by the construction of the Los Angeles-Owens river aqueduct when 476 feet were completed during the month of March. The record was made in the Elmeroth Lake tunnel and surpasses seven feet the distance made on another part of the work several months ago when all records up to that time were broken. The tunnel is 841 feet through solid rock. The entire 210 miles of aqueduct is being built by the municipality under direction of its own engineers and is expected to cost about $10,000,000.

CALLED UPON WORKERS TO QUIT IN COAL REGIONS

WINNEBAGO, April 1.—Although the miners in several camps voted to accept the new schedule prepared by the operators of the coal mines in Western Canada, President Sherman issued an order last night calling upon the members of the United Mine Workers of America to suspend work in district 18 until the new arrangement is actually made. This includes all the collieries in South Alberta and northern British Columbia, excepting those of the Crown West Pass Coal Co., where a separate agreement was arranged. This order followed a conference of all the officials at Montreal yesterday and sends thousands of men into idleness.

POLICE SEARCH FOR MISSING APPRENTICE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The police boat was out the greater part of the night at the request of the federal authorities, searching for H. J. Jones, an apprentice, on the United States transport Intrepid, who escaped from Goat Island on a punt at 2 o'clock this morning. One of the guards saw Jones put off in the small boat, but was unable to reach him with a shot, and by the time he could report to the officer of the guard the man was out of sight.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Oakland readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

George Furlong, teacher 1907 University Avenue, Berkeley, Cal., says: "I am quite willing that you should use my name as an endorser of Doan's Kidney Pills. For a year I was subjected to an ache across my loins and if I took cold or did any hard work, the trouble was aggravated. The kidney secretions were highly colored and at times a retention existed. The good accounts I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills induced me to get this remedy. Its use proved most successful, for in a short time I was completely relieved and there was a general improvement. I feel justified in vouching for the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other."

NOTE AND EXCERBS

Burling: Gentility is a thing but French proverbs: A Jes given too far sinks home late. Will's meane kindly very notice on the gas meter that winter is gone? Chicago is clamoring for a subway, and the Chicago underground usually gets everything it demand. Another thing Mr. Roosevelt will like about Africa is that he greedily number interests have yet stripped its forests.

The Lankan situation is a constant reminder that international law has almost as many technicalities as the domestic variety. A wide Congress would spare the women from the operations of legalized robbery. Men, in the contrary, are as a rule easy. Mr. Roosevelt's cozy safety through all the other Atlantic perils. Wait street is rather hoping that the Hiss-Russell of Morocco may get him. The Woodward triplets have been named Milton, Margaret and Mildred. The proud father is as partial to "Gems" as if he was a printer. Instead of a traveling salesman Congress should not feel on chipper. It may find, a little later that President Taft can write messages that are just as long and just as emphatic as those of his predecessor. Mr. Roosevelt will save himself during the African journey. And it is likely, too, that Kermit may make a few surreptitious experiments with the razor before they get on. As soon as Congress hears from the women of the United States it will make haste to explain that the glove schedule in the Payne bill shall apply only to boxing gloves and catchers' gloves. Horace D. Taft, the President's eldest brother, has a boys' school in Watertown, Conn. "The most home boy in the world," Taft says, "will be about his age. The boy who would consider himself disgraced if he touched liquor will go out behind the barn and smoke himself into a stupor without hesitation, knowing all the while he is willfully deceiving his instructors." London suffered from severe earthquake shocks in 1761 and prophesies of the total destruction of the city were rife. The London Chronicle says: "April 5 was the date named for the catastrophe, and for days before the roads from town were thronged with the vehicles of those who were seeking safety in flight, in spite of the threat of one of the papers of the day to publish the names of all such cowards. Even the more courageous elected to pass their nights out of town, Hyde Park being the most popular camping ground. Nothing was got on the news of Europe as the coming of the first thousandth year of the Christian era. The churches were thronged, the houses deserted and all good Christians slept in the open, in readiness for that end of the world which was expected to come at the proper date. This end of the world has had many prophesies to its discredit. And people who were nervous about 'Mother Shipton's prophecy.' And the world to an end shall come. In eighteen hundred and eighty-one, are still alive and criticizing the rhyme and the reason."

REFLECTIONS OF A SACHELOR Pointed Paragraphs

The good cooks of civilization are always ancient history. A girl feels it's just cheating her to write her a love letter without a postscript. It's queer how much we think of our life here when about the most it appears to be is rehearsing for our funeral. A man remembers for of ce has such a naturally candid manner that when he bumps into a lamp post he tries to shake hands with it. A sure thing about a woman who goes abroad is that no matter how seasick she is, she can't find every kind of hat every kind of woman on board.

MOTOR CLUB ANNOUNCES NEXT EVENT

Economy Run to Santa Cruz in May

By ELIZABETH GREGG.

The San Francisco Motor Club, at a meeting yesterday, decided upon the next event which the club will give. An economy run to Santa Cruz and return was scheduled for May 15 and 16. The members have long been waiting for the run and will doubtless enter it with interest.

The machines will be selected and when Santa Cruz is reached they will be located in a garage and will not be touched until the night. According to the "economy" run out in the past, the only scenic light when they had to stop was at the consumption of fuel.

The run will be a 100-mile run, starting at 10 o'clock and ending at 10 o'clock. The route will be via the coast road, passing through the redwood forests and the beautiful scenery of the coast.

SPEEDWELL ARRIVES IN SAN FRANCISCO

Handsome Car Makes Its Appearance on the Row

The latest machine to command attention along gasoline rows is the Speedwell, which made its first appearance in this city. Unlike any other car which has come to the coast this year, the Speedwell arrives quietly, but in quality. It is a car which is not only a car, but a car which is a car.

Mr. Lynch is enthusiastic over his car and over the prospect of a big business in this State. He will be a big success, as the Speedwell Motor Car Company makes everything from a motor truck to a limousine. As soon as the San Francisco agent has been well launched, Mr. Lynch will be a big success.

The Speedwell is a car which is not only a car, but a car which is a car. It is a car which is not only a car, but a car which is a car. It is a car which is not only a car, but a car which is a car.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SHOW YOUR STRENGTH

Contestant I. F. Kingston Has a Big Lead—Many Others Are Forging Ahead

There was never before a popularity voting contest on the coast where fifteen days before the close the vote was so low and where also every contestant is within striking distance of the automobile. The contestants are beginning to realize this fact, and many who have been trailing along in the rear are now up with the leader, and, if the truth were known, just a little bit ahead. This is explained of course, by the fact that they have not as yet voted their certificates. A little extra effort on your part may win for you.

Denny Holland Again Leads

There is a battle royal on in the policeman's division. Denny Holland shows a gain of over 15,000 today on the leaders.

Miss Anna L. Harms again takes the lead from Mildred Mahoney in district No. 2 of the young ladies. We are looking for some surprises in this class.

Miss Gertie McPherson, leader in district No. 3, shows a substantial gain, but none of the other girls feel that it takes more than that to scare them.

Don't forget that the time is short. You need subscriptions. Tell your friends you need more from them. You must get in and work, and good-luck go with you.
